Boy Shoots at Bird, Hits Man in Leg

A 15-year-old Atherton boy shot at a blackbird with his .22-caliber rifle Saturday afternoon in a field at the corner of Woodside Rd. and Alameda de las Pulgas hit John E. Olsen, who was working in the field, inflicting a gunshot wound in his left leg, the sheriff's office reported Monday.

The boy, Joseph Rafferty, of Alameda de las Pulgas, Atherton, who had been swimming with three other boys, said he did not known there was anybody in the field. No charge was placed against him.

Olsen was treated at Palo Alto Hospital.

Palomar Annexation Still Hanging Fire

The proposed annexation of Palomar Park was referred to the planning commission Monday after Redwood City councilmen agreed the commissioners should have the task of hearing protests and approving boundaries.

Alfred J. Harwood, one of the proponents of the annexation, presented a map, which he said had been drawn under the supervision of City Atty. Paul A. McCarthy, while Palomar Park property owners stood by to see if their property was included in the annexation.

Councilman Harold F. Anderson moved the matter be postponed. Councilman C. C. Armstrong said the annexation move did not properly belong with the council at this time. Anderson withdrew his motion, and McCarthy explained the annexation backers merely wanted approval of the revised boundaries before proceeding with costly legal procedure.

"The planning commission approved the annexation last year," Harwood pointed out.

"The boundaries were similar," McCarthy volunteered.

Councilman C. A. Britschgi interrupted the laughter of the annexation's opponents to state he would not vote for the addition to the city if connections to city limits were corridors on one side of a street.

The audience applauded. Mayor W. W. Hilton remarked, "I was just about to ask if anyone opposed the annexation."

Lt. H. D. Metcalf spoke up for the opposition, declaring, "We were not contacted—if Mr. Harwood is speaking for us, we should have been asked."

Councilman Anderson moved the matter be referred to the planning commission for its consideration.

Britschgi pointed out some definite plan of action should be taken, explaining, "We can't ask these people to come down here every week."

Mayor Hilton suggested a petition be circulated against the annexation.

"We've been kept in the dark," charged L. G. Owen.

"You're not in," said Harwood.

"You may be establishing a damn good bridgehead," retorted Owen.

After the councilmen voted to turn the matter to the planning commission, half of the nearly 200 persons present at the meeting left the chambers to debate the issue in the hallways of the city hall.

Harwood's plan of annexation includes four lots along the west side of Whipple Rd., the Scenic Heights subdivision, to Clifford Ave., a triangular section to the proposed extension of Belle Roche Ave., upper Palomar Park and property southwest of upper Palomar.

Upon motion of Councilman Granger, the council voted to release budget requests of the city department heads to the newspapers for public record.

The suggestion evoked several comments from the councilmen who said that the budget was not now in its final stage, but rather in its preliminary stages.

"As far as I'm concerned, everything in the city hall is a matter of public record," declared Anderson.

Granger said he wanted the budget opened to public review.

The motion passed unanimously.

Joseph M. Cheney Reported Killed On Okinawa

Word that T/3 Joseph M. Cheney of Menlo Park was killed in action on Okinawa on Easter Sunday was revealed today by his sister, Mrs. J. W. Christensen of Woodside. The day after Easter would have been the local soldier's 26th birthday.

Overseas three years, Cheney was among the members of a reconnaissance group which raised the first American flag over Japanese soil in this war and fought a "private" war on a tiny island north of Kwajalein Atoll in March, 1944.

The son of Mrs. Maude Cheney of San Mateo, Sergeant Cheney is survived by a wife, Mary, and a 2-year-old son, who recently moved from Menlo Park to Vallejo. A graduate of Sequoia High School, Cheney entered the army four years ago.

He was the brother of Dean Cheney and Mrs. Louise Sanders of Menlo Park, Lyle Cheney of San Mateo, Mrs. Chloe Phister and Mrs. Joy Phister of Hayward, Anita Schuman of San Francisco, Olive Williams of Medford, Ore., and Frank Cheney of Alameda.

A sister-in-law of the soldier, Mrs. Dean Cheney, teaches at Sequoia High School. He was a member of the Seventh Infantry Division.

Mrs. Kenneth Sim Awarded Divorce

Superior Court Judge Maxwell McNutt Monday granted an interlocutory decree of divorce to Ethyl Sim, 152 Elm Ave., Burlingame, from Kenneth H. Sim, real estate broker.

In a settlement approved by Judge McNutt, Sim agreed to pay Mrs. Sim $160 a month. He has an income of $6000 a year, Mrs. Sim claimed. The couple was married Oct. 13, 1920.

Dancing School Question Is Laid Over by Council

Two Redwood City dancing schools and a nursery school were given a "go-ahead" by the Redwood City City Council Monday after nearly 100 parents of local children appeared to protest cancellation of business licenses which the council termed "issued in error" and in violation of city zoning ordinances.

The councilmen voted five to two to place the matter on the agenda for the June 4 meeting, explaining that should investigation reveal a nuisance to exist, in the meantime, steps would be taken to alleviate the trouble.

Councilman Chester C. Armstrong cast one of the dissenting votes, insisting that the schools were operating in violation of the city zoning ordinance which prohibits any but a public school from a first class residential district.

"What's the use of bringing it before the council? I'm thoroughly disgusted. Ordinances mean nothing if public pressure can make or break a law," said the councilman.

The other dissenting vote was cast by Mayor W. W. Hilton.

The parents, who came to the defense of Mrs. Mildred Buhler, operator of a dance school at 180 Elwood St.; Miss Dorothy Roberts, owner of a dance school at 221 Hudson St., and Mrs. Arthur Eckerle, who conducts a nursery school at 218 Whipple St., pleaded for tolerance, and argued that enforcement of the ordinance would deny their children such activities.

Councilman Harold F. Anderson received the support of the council when he voiced disapproval of changing the present ordinance, as had been suggested in a petition signed by 157 persons.

However, he explained, pointing to abatement proceedings against boarding houses and an upholstery shop which are being carried in abeyance for the duration, "I feel these schools should be given consideration."

It was Anderson who proposed the schools be permitted to continue for the duration and that any nuisances that might draw complaint be taken care of by the police department.

"How do you gentlemen propose to draw a line between the business and residential district?" Councilman Armstrong interrupted.

His remarks brought vehement objections from several persons in the audience.

A suggestion of Councilman C. A. Britschgi that a committee from the council met with the disapproval of Councilman Anderson who said, "The council of seven men is better suited to judge than a committee."

"I don't believe the place for schools is in a first class residential district," opined Councilman Floyd Granger. "But under the present emergency, I'm willing to carry it on the agenda. If there is a complaint, we will handle it as an individual complaint."

It was pointed out that only one complaint had been received, against the Buhler school.

Lt. William E. Nelson spoke for the complainant, stating that he and his family objected to the dancing school in a first class residential zone.

Later a woman in the audience asked how many complaints were necessary to bring action against the schools.

"None," replied Mayor Hilton. "It's a violation of the ordinance."

Armstrong proposed revising the zoning ordinance to comply with restrictions in a second class residential zone.

Voting on Anderson's motion followed and in answer to City Tax Collector Nelle Miramontes, the councilmen explained no license fees were to be collected.

Mrs. Marguerite O'Brien, wealthy Hillsborough widow who died Feb. 27, left the bulk of her estate, which was listed merely as "in excess of $10,000," in trust for the benefit of Children's Memorial Hospital in Montreal, Canada, her will filed for probate in superior court here shows.

The estate is reported to be above the million-dollar mark.

Mrs. O'Brien, who died at the age of 60 while walking her dog near her Hillsborough home, was the widow of Edward M. O'Brien. Her will was dated June 21, 1933. Residue of the estate, after specific bequests, was left for a trust fund for the Montreal hospital "in memory of my husband," the will stated.

The petition was filed by the American Trust Co.

S.M. Woman Wins Divorce, $50,000

Mrs. Hazel G. Fall, 23 Belford Way, San Mateo, who was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from E. E. Fall Monday morning by Superior Court Judge Maxwell McNutt, is to receive $50,000 from her former husband, according to terms of an agreement approved by Judge McNutt.

Mrs. Fall gets custody of their minor child, John Harding Fall. She also remains beneficiary of two $25,000 life insurance policies. Fall is operator of the Rich Pie Shop in San Francisco. Mrs. Fall had charged her husband with desertion.

PRODUCE . . . .

IT'S EASY TO THINK of your Victory Garden as just a little plot, not amounting to much in food production. BUT—do you know that last year America's little Victory Gardens, like yours, produced more than eight million tons of food? That was a big help in relieving the overworked farmer and the food packing plants. Let's do it again this year.

PRESERVE . . . .

WHEN YOUR CROPS come in, you may have a surplus of vegetables, fruits or berries—more than you need for daily meals. Be wise, be thrifty, be patriotic and can or preserve this surplus. Last year, home kitchens like yours, preserved almost three and a half billion quarts of vital food. Let's do it once more and help shorten the war.

PERSEVERE . . .

LET'S ALL KEEP UP our efforts on the home front, even when the news is best from the battle fronts. It's going to take time to catch up with the waste of war, long after the last shot is fired. And home-canned goodies in the larder will be welcome as the boys come home. . . . When the dictators figured America would get tired, they didn't know about American perseverance.

A Ton of Steel—OR The Life of an American Boy?

Which would you rather give as part payment for Victory?

It has been shown over and over in this war that the more steel we throw, the fewer boys we have to throw.

We've seen the Nazis and the Japs toss their men away like trash. Thank God we Americans like our boys and will spend anything to save them. Before we advance on a city and before we land on an island we storm it for days with steel.

Steel Is YOU

And steel is where you come in.

Quit thinking of your war bonds as pieces of paper. Maybe each $100 bond you buy is the life of a neighbor kid.

You now all know boys who've been killed; how much money would you have LOANED to Uncle Sam to buy steel (and the thousands of other necessary war products) to save the life of just one of them?

This Is the KNOCKOUT

All champion fighters know that the last punch has got to be the hardest. Wars are won by the side that works up to the grand sock at the finish.

The war against the Japs will still be the biggest war this country ever fought before the present one.

So go down to the bottom of your heart and your pocket and scrape up every cent you can find, to help buy the life of one or two American kids.

It's an auction. Lives are for sale. What do you bid?

YMCA'S NEW BUILDING DEDICATED YESTERDAY

With John Bunn, dean of men at Stanford University, terming it "a monument to youth," the first unit of the new YMCA building here was dedicated Sunday afternoon.

The dedication was made by Harold A. Wagner, managing director of the San Francisco YMCA. Stanley Baker, president of the Junior-Senior Hi-Y and commissioner of welfare at Sequoia High School, accepted the building on behalf of youth.

Neal Van Sooy of Redwood City, chairman of the San Mateo County YMCA board of managers, introduced guests. James Thomas, new chairman of the Redwood City YMCA committee, which had the building constructed, presided. John Dusel sang a solo; Invocation was given by the Rev. Ralph Benson, pastor of the North Fair Oaks Community Church, and benediction was given by the Rev. Egbert Clark of St. Peter's Episcopal Church. The Rev. Irvin A. Engle of the First Methodist Church led group singing.

The American flag was presented by James Whitehead, commander, on behalf of American Legion Post 105, and the California flag was presented by Wayne R. Millington, past grand president, on behalf of Parlor 66, Native Sons of the Golden West.

The Peninsula YMCA of San Mateo County was founded 21 years ago as a branch of the San Francisco YMCA. Since that time it has served the youth of the area through a "non-equipment" community type of program. This program has been centered in schools, churches and neighborhoods and has used as recourse for its activities facilities already existing in the community.

In recent months it has become apparent that the program of the association must be provided with building facilities, if it is to expand and provide the type and scope of service which the community may rightly look to the YMCA to render.

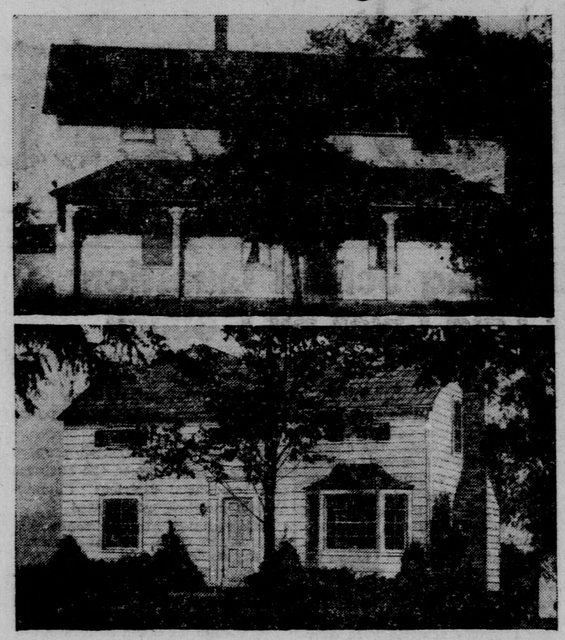
The Redwood City YMCA committee, recognizing the need to provide a center for Redwood City "Y" clubs as well as space for the Sequoia District office of the Peninsula "Y," took steps last Fall toward the first unit of a building program.

D. Fred Gatchel presented a workable plan whereby the first unit might be constructed. Under the leadership of J. Elmer Morrish, who was then chairman, the committee acquired a lot and placed the contract for erecting the building with Emil Steinegger.

A. H. Sagehorn was chairman of the finance committee and Fred Schmitz headed the house committee. Laurie Duncan designed the building. Bert L. Werder was instrumental in the construction of the building, which is located at the corner of Brewster Ave. and Clinton St., across the street from Sequoia High School.

The building is so constructed that other units can be added when necessary. Numercus individuals and firms contributed money to make the construction possible.

Postwar Remodeling Preview



More than two million families are planning to remodel their homes with the coming of peace, a nationwide survey reports. Here is a sample of the transformations to come. A few skillful changes have made an out-of-date farm house (above) into a modern, fireproof home (below). New shingles and sidings of asbestos cement, a material which will not burn, rot or decay are the major improvements. Re-siding and re-shingling with asbestos, however, need not wait until after the war, because these products are available today.

City Employe Salary Raises Are in Budget

BY NITA REIFSCHNEIDER

Overall salary increases of 10 per cent for city employes have been tentatively approved by the Redwood City councilmen at recent caucus meetings, City Mgr. Robert W. Mead announced today.

Mead, who today released preliminary budget requests of department heads, said he was including the raises in the budget which he is now preparing under the supervision of the council.

The salary increases, it is understood, will add in the neighborhood of $18,000 a year to the city payroll.

Mead pointed out that although requests from department heads totaled $327,638.41, completed budget expenditures for 1945-46 will approximate the 1944-45 appropriation of $232,133.33.

In caucus sessions of the council and in consultations with department heads, the department requests have already been curbed to within $34,000 of last year's appropriation, he said.

"We do not want to increase the present city tax rate of $1.49," Mead declared, explaining that the council had reviewed the budget requests with the consideration of both anticipated revenue and city needs.

Heading the requests was that of Fire Chief Mark Ryan, whose budget requests and recommendations totaled $106,521.02.

Ryan's request, which pointed out antiquated fire fighting equipment, need for additional personnel and other items necessary to raise its rating set by the Pacific Board of Fire Underwriters, included $55,710 for salaries.

Supplies and services totaled $3086.40 in the request; $5622.62 for motor vehicle expenses which included extensive repairs to old fire trucks; repairs and maintenance, $3240, and other expenses, $42,102, to include purchase of two new fire rigs and an automobile for the chief deputy, and work on firm alarm boxes at $7505.

Councilmen had indicated they will purchase the two new rigs, having decided the price of repairing and maintaining two present trucks more costly than the acquistion of new equipment.

Two more men will be added to the staff of the fire department, councilmen have also said.

Chief C. L. Collins, in his request for the police department, asked for $64,833.60 which is nearly $10,000 more than last year's appropriation.

Collins proposed salary increases in his request for $51,460, and asked for the purchase of two new automobiles at $2600 and $300 in photographic equipment.

The sum of $26,290 was requested for the street department by Supt. Lyle Winters. His request, compared to $20,473 which was appropriated last year, estimates salaries at $12,210, supplies and services at $10,500, motor vehicle expense at $2230, and other expenses at $1350.

Fourth highest request came from the electrical department, which asked $22,601.29. Salaries constituted $5340 of the total, supplies and services $13,544.29, motor vehicle expense, $100, and other expenses $3617. In 1944-45, the department received an appropriation of $19,085.68.

The city park department requested $14,140 for operation during the coming year, the sewer department asked $9310; the building department, $3990; the street cleaning department, $10,433; municipal building department, $4600, and $4300 from the city engineer's office.

Tom Cutting, never one to do things half way, was rushed to the hospital last week with a ruptured appendix, survived an emergency operation, and is now well on the road to recovery. . . . Olin Nuckolls is back home again from the hospital and is convalescing nicely. . . . George Raubinger is recovering from a week's illness. . . . Miles McDonald was taken seriously ill a fortnight ago and rushed to the hospital, but was well enough to be brought home over the weekend. . . . Mrs. Clara Welch, wife of our house committee chairman, sustained a painful injury in a fall in San Francisco 10 days ago, is now up and around again.

Al Armitage's new home on Blanford Blvd. is rapidly nearing completion and Al expects to have his family back with him from the East in another six weeks or so. . . . Mrs. Helen Horgan is busy lining up her next USO party scheduled for May 19. She is promised a "hot jive Navy Negro band of eight pieces," from some station in the East Bay. Mrs. Horgan says food has become quite a problem at the USO, and that they have been running in the red to provide such staples as meat and baked beans, etc. She says women providing meat dishes, cheese and other point foods can be reimbursed by the ration board. . . . Incidentally, Bert Conroy's bakery has been furnishing gratis a lot of unsold day-old pastry to the USO. . . . And speaking of Bert, we don't know yet whether it was he or Stan Parkins who entertained the directors at their last meeting. It was at Bert's house, but he said Stan furnished the food. And what food! Fried chicken (it was not rabbit!), four kinds of cheese, salad, etc. But we never should have taken that third helping!

It is not generally known, but a tournament bridge game was held the other night to settle the bridge championship among commuters. Joe Harper and Roy Cloud are the doubles champions. They beat Bill Curran and Bill Dobbyn, who have always talked a good game. The two Bills are demanding a return match on the ground that Harper furnished the cards and they were these new plastic items which last forever and cost $3.50 per deck. At any rate, it seems Joe and Roy gave the duo of Bills a "plastic plastering" to the tune of five bucks a corner. That ought to learn 'em.

When we heard about the game we figured it was just an excuse to get together and do a little tommyhawk whetting in preparation for the Commuters annual election this Thursday night. But Curran swears "politics" wasn't even mentioned . . . which reminds us to tell you not to miss the Thursday dinner meeting May 10 at the Woman's Club. Not only will there be a lively election in which all should take part, but it is the annual fathers' and sons' night and a special program has been arranged for the boys.

A salute to Mrs. Will Rogers for the fine work she is doing for the Cubs. Recently she accepted the trying and time-consuming job of supervising den mother for this district. . . . Another salute to Paul Allen for undertaking the chairmanship of the Commuters' Seventh War Loan Drive. This is a tough job, fellows, so let's all pitch in and give Paul our full support. . . . And when we place our order for bonds, let's buy one extra, as a gesture of thankfulness for the end of Epurope's war, and as evidence of our determination to speed the end of the Asiatic war.

No Quorum At Menlo Council

Only three councilmen attended the abbreviated meeting of the Menlo Park Council last night and the few items on the agenda were postponed until the next meeting.

C. V. Christensen, property representative of the Union Oil Co., appeared before the council to ask permission to erect a modern, streamlined service station at a cost of approximately $15,000 or more on the northwest corner of El Camino Real and Santa Cruz Ave.

He added, "You may rest assured that the station to be built will be a first class station which will not depreciate the value or attractiveness of any other building or store adjacent to this location. This would also be a considerable improvement over the present used car lot."

Mayor Donald Fisher instructed Mr. Christensen to be present at the council meeting on May 22 when his request will be discussed by the council.

The council heard a first reading of the resolution to determine the nature and location of the proposed improvement of Merrill St. Attorney James O'Keefe announced that the proposal will be placed before the council at the next meeting for approval and adoption.

The council agreed to adjourn until Tuesday, May 15, 7:30 p.m., at the city hall.

Princeton Cannery Is Granted Permit

The Princeton Packers yesterday secured a permit from County Bldg. Insp. A. W. Russell to construct a fish cannery at Princeton. The permit shows the valuation is $22,000.

The county board of supervisors, upon recommendation of the planning commission, previously had approved rezoning of property for the cannery.

'Lady Churchill' Sentenced to Year

Superior Court Judge A. R. Cotton Monday afternoon sentenced Hazel Brownell, 50, who called herself "Lady Churchill," to one year in the county jail here, with credit for time served, after she pleaded guilty to conspiracy to swindle a Lodi auto court proprietor out of $8000.

Mrs. Brownell, who was arrested in Los Angeles on a warrant from the San Mateo police and placed in the county jail here Mar. 11, had pleaded not guilty to a charge of grand theft, but she pleaded guilty when an amended information changed the charge to conspiracy.

Cecil Wells Jr. Enters Navy

Cecil H. Wells Jr., 18, of Redwood City left yesterday for 'boot' training at San Diego. The June, 1944, graduate of Sequoia High School has been employed by the Macabee Engineering firm in Palo Alto. He plans to attend engineering school after the war.

His brother, Maj. Wayne Wells, has completed his first bombing mission over Tokyo, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil H. Wells of 272 Grand St., reported today. The former aide-de-camp to Lt. Gen. Millard F. Harmon has been in the Pacific Theater since August, 1942, with the exception of a flying trip home in December.

Major Wells is squadron leader of P-51 Mustangs. He is flying with Capt. Richard Birk of Burlingame, well known in this area. A graduate of Sequoia High School, Wells received his wings at Foster Field, Tex. in June, 1942.

Sgt. Leon Gamble Missing in Action

Sgt. Leon Gamble has been missing in action in Germany since Apr. 6, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gamble of 620 El Camino Real reported today. The 26-year-old engineer was a member of General Patton's Seventh Army and has been overseas since October, 1944.

In November, Gamble was wounded in action and received the Purple Heart. His parents have not been able to learn the nature of his wounds. A month later, back in action, the engineer suffered severely from frozen feet.

Prior to entering the army two years ago, Sergeant Gamble was a law student at Yale University. He graduated from high school in New Haven, Conn. where his wife, Connie, now lives. Gamble took his basic training at Camp Van Doren, Miss.

His brother, Capt. Alfred Gamble, is now stationed in Italy. A medical corpsman, he has been overseas 18 months.

Back From Sea, Arrested for Manslaughter

MM1/c Harold A. La Fever, 26, whose automobile collided with a second car last Aug. 27 in the south end of San Mateo County, causing the deaths of five San Franciscans who were on a weekend outing, has been booked at the county jail here by the California Highway Patrol on a charge of manslaughter.

La Fever was arrested in San Diego after he returned from several months' duty with the submarine service in the Pacific.

Survivors of the terrific crash were not in a condition to describe what happened for some time following the wreck and the manslaughter complaint was not filed by Sgt. John Shaffer of the CHP until Nov. 1. By that time La Fever was on sea duty.

Six persons besides those killed were injured in the crash, including La Fever and his companion, Mrs. Ceola Ione Leonard, 25, 526 Eighth Ave., Menlo Park, wife of George Leonard, who was in the Seabees in the Aleutians at the time of the crash.

Mrs. Leonard has returned to her job with a Redwood City title company, but she still uses crutches, according to the district attorney's office.

Killed in the wreck were John P. Ryan, Mariana Ryan, Frank Serafini Sr., Frank Serafini Jr. and Mrs. Angelina Serafini, all of San Francisco.

Millbrae Family Sues For Auto Crash Hurts

Three members of a Millbrae family today sued for $29,744 for injuries suffered in an automobile accident on Sneath Ln., last Dec. 2.

Named defendants were Diedrich Plate and Earl G. Miner, 775 14th Ave., Menlo Park, driver of one of the automobiles. Iris Weinand, 278 Magnolia Ave., Millbrae, asked $25,000 for injuries which include an injured left knee and contusions, and injuries which resulted in a miscarriage. Kent E. Weinand, driver of the second car, who suffered shoulder and neck injuries, asked $1744, and Violet Weinand, who suffered a brain concussion and neck injury, asked $3000.

Victory Gardens as Vital as Planes, Tanks, Guns

A goal of 20,000,000 Victory gardens—more than were made in 1944—was fixed for 1945 by the National Victory Garden Conference held in Washington at the call of the war food administration and the U. S. department of agriculture.

The conference was called to dispel the uncertainty which had arisen from news and radio reports which represented the Victory garden movement as no longer necessary. These reports were the outgrowth of a wave of optimism which swept the country in the late summer, when collapse of Germany seemed near.

It then seemed possible that heavy reservations of the 1944 commercial pack of canned goods made for the armed forces might be reduced, and the amount available for civilian use correspondingly increased. It was this possibility that led to the removal of canned goods from the ration list at that time.

Hope for an early victory was short-lived, however, and when the conference was called it was already apparent that any let down in Victory Garden production of vegetables might bring about serious scarcity.

A survey by the department of agriculture presented to the conference indicated that in 1944 only 18,500,000 Victory gardens had been made, as compared with 22,000,000 in 1943. A much greater drop had taken place in the amount of home canning. Too many gardeners who had put up more vegetables in 1943 than they could use in a year, canned none at all in 1944; so that reserves on storeroom shelves had been heavily reduced.

For the armed forces, 41 per cent of the 1944 commercial pack had been set aside, and any chance of its release had disappeared. This would reduce the commercial canned goods available to civilians to 56 per cent of that available a year ago.

Judge Marvin Jones addressed the conference, and his speech gave warning of the change which had taken place in the outlook, since the early fall.

"Three months ago there was much optimism that the war would be over before the end of this year," said he. "This hope has now been discounted. History shows that nations with ample food supplies win victories. Food is just as necessary as guns, tanks and planes. Home gardeners produced over 40 per cent of the fresh vegetable supply this year and we are asking them to equal this record in 1945. We cannot afford to slow down now when Victory is almost within our grasp."

Return of canned vegetables to the ration list with high point values followed soon after the conference, and gave further proof of the serious view taken by national leaders of the situation as to vegetable supplies, and the need for continued production in Victory gardens

"Don't Slow Down Now"—U. S. to Victory Gardeners

Judge Marvin Jones, war food administrator, told the National Victory Garden Conference held in Washington:

"History shows that nations with ample food supplies are the ones that win victories. We cannot afford to gamble. We must do everything we can to make certain that every one of our fighting men has all the food he needs. Food is just as necessary as guns, tanks, and planes. Home gardeners produced over 40 per cent of the fresh vegetable supply in 1944 and we are asking them to equal this record in 1945. We can't afford to slow down now when Victory is almost within our grasp!"

Fire Prevention

Curtailment of fires will be a major goal in postwar building construction. Wartime uses of fireproof materials have been so extensive and so successful that the way is clear for far greater and more efficient use in future construction.

R.C. Woman Burlingame Rape Victim

BURLINGAME — A story of rape in Ray Park here was told to Burlingame police Sunday night by 19-year-old Marie Mathies, 672 Woodside Rd., Redwood City.

Her clothing covered with mud, Miss Mathies stumbled into the C. E. Alexander home at 1504 Highway Rd., shortly before 10 o'clock Sunday night to ask that police be called.

To Sgt. John G. Price she tearfully reported that she had been visiting friends in San Bruno, and was waiting at San Bruno Ave. and El Camino Real for a southbound bus home, when two men and a woman in a maroon colored convertible couple stopped and offered her a ride.

"I told them 'no thanks,'" Miss Mathies told Price. "But then the one fellow said 'everything's OK, this girl is my wife,' so I decided to accept the offer."

Miss Mathies said she rode in the front seat with the driver, whom his companions called "Bob." The other man and the girl, "Louise," sat in the rumble seat. During the ride, she said, both men took drinks from quart bottles.

"When we came to Ray Dr., in Burlingame," Miss Mathies told Price, "the driver suddenly turned the car into Ray Park, continued up two blocks and then drove off onto a dirt road and stopped the car."

The girl said she jumped from the car and started to run, but that "Bob" caught her, threatened her with a knife, and pushed her down into the mud. Holding his hand over her mouth, she said, he dragged her onto a dry stretch of ground.

The other fellow then came up, but refused to give her any aid, she said.

After the attack, Miss Mathies told Price, her companions refused to take her back into the car but offered her the price of bus far to Redwood City.

"I refused the money," Miss Mathies said, "and then the other said, "why don't you call the police.'"

According to the girl's story, the three then drove away in the car and she made her way through the park and across the El Camino Real to Highway Rd. to reach a telephone.

After hearing Miss Mathies' story, Officer Price took her to Community Hospital, where physicians verified the girl's story that she had been attacked. They reported that there were no marks of violence on her body. Miss Mathies was then returned to her home.

Miss Mathies said that "Bob" was a man about 32 years old, that he had a scar on his right cheek, and that he had a small moustache. He was short, of medium complexion and wore a light sport coat and grey hat, she told the officer.

The work is expected to take five days.

No Large Celebration Plans Here

Seeming barely conscious that nearly six years of horror had ended in Europe, the people of Redwood City went about their usual tasks Tuesday with no large celebrations planned.

Churches and schools throughout the area scheduled special programs, not in a spirit of rejoicing but to help those who had lost loved ones . . . to honor those who had fallen.

Following President Truman's proclamation that Germany was unconditionally surrendered at 6 o'clock Tuesday p.m., the large bell in the Redeemer Lutheran Church pealed and the main fire station set off its three alarms.

City Mgr. Robert W. Mead reported that he was elated with the V-E Day news but added "We're all staying on the job and doing our part here until the war is over."

Flags at half mast were the only colorful notes seen on Broadway.

However, Henry B. Butcher, owner of the B and B Termite Co. at 2921 Middlefield Rd. said that the five-foot neon sign which he has constructed would be lighted in front of his building. The sign is a huge V.

County Executive Frederick Peterson declared, "V-E Day should be one of thanksgiving, earnest endeavor and prayer for an early V-J Day which will truly be the day for rejoicing and celebration throughout the world."

"Let us not forget in our moment of joy," urged Mayor W. W. Hilton, "that there are thousands of brave men who are not with us to celebrate this momentous occasion and that there are also thousands of men in the Pacific who are carrying on a fight so that we may have a better world in which to live."

As the churches announced their special services, schools in this area also held planned programs. The six grammar schools in Redwood City organized assemblies to explain the meaning of V-E Day to the pupils. Patriotic songs were sung and children were told that the total war is far from won.

At Sequoia High School, students attended assembly from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m., with Supt. A. C. Argo and Vice Principal Donald Bogie addressing the two groups. Stan Baker, commissioner of welfare, presided and read the official proclamation of President Truman. The Civil Air Patrol presented colors and the Treble Clef sang appropriate selections.

Students were dismissed at 1:30 p.m. at Sequoia Tuesday for 2 hours of recreation in the boys' and girls' gyms . Dancing, badminton and group games highlighted the entertainment which was followed by return to normal after school activities. The temporary note of festivity was shadowed by the realization that of the 1752 former students in the armed forces, 43 have been killed in action.

Although the fighting has stopped in Europe, parents are still being informed that their sons have been killed or wounded in Germany.

The official Office of War Information casualty list revealed that PFC Phil K. Mitchell had been wounded in the European region. The soldier's mother, Mrs. Alpha P. Mitchell, lives at 1600 Arguello St.

J. E. Buhler, city war finance chairman, urged increased war bond purchases as the most patriotic way to celebrate V-E Day.

"The war isn't over," he warned. "The Seventh War Loan is just around the corner."

To move an American armored division with its approximately 3700 vehicles by rail, 75 trains and 2700 cars are needed.

Fight in Colma Lands Four in Jail Here

Four persons were in the county jail here Monday booked on suspicion of drunkenness and disturbing the peace following an alleged fracas at the Loychen Gardens in Colma Sunday night.

The four were arrested on complaint of Louis Rosenaur of San Carlos, manager of the bar, who claimed the men were fighting on his premises. Booked and held on $100 cash bail each were Clifford Muller, 39, San Francisco, and Russell Andres, 36; Armon Neff, 18, and R. C. Eaves, 28, of Hunters Point.

USES Here Plans To Add Special Veterans' Service

Earl Lawton, manager of the U. S. Employment Service here, today announced that the Redwood City office soon will have a veterans' service representative to help facilitate veterans of World War II to become readjusted to civilian employment.

Redwood City is among 30 cities in California in which the employment service will have new positions of veterans' service representative to aid veterans in finding postwar jobs. San Mateo and Palo Alto already have such representatives.

Before a new veterans' service representative can be accommodated here, however, Lawton said, it will be necessary to find new quarters for the local office. The office at present is located in the basement of the county courthouse, but Lawton said the office must vacate by July 1 to enable the county to use the space.

Lawton said his office is seeking a vacant store or office on the ground floor and centrally located to provide office space for a personnel of four. The office at present has two employes. but it will be increased to four when a new location is secured, he stated. One of the additions will be the veterans' service representative and the other will be a staff member to aid persons other than veterans in securing postwar employment. Lawton at present is doing part of the extra work required.

The veterans' service representative would be trained to specialize in veterans' service only, Lawton stated.

A local veterans' employment council, to be made up of all organizations which have a veterans' program, will be formed here, Lawton said. Among organizations represented would be selective service, American Red Cross, schools, service clubs, the ministerial association, labor groups, the chamber of commerce, department of health and welfare, USO, civilian defense and employment service, Lawton explained.
